

Can God do it again?
Matthew 15:29-16:12

Introduction: We begin today with a _____ paragraph in Matthew 15 beginning in verse 29:

A. This passage tells us that Jesus took an _____ route to return from Tyre and Sidon to the area around the Sea of Galilee.

1. The name "Decapolis" means "the _____"; and it was in an area that had a large Gentile population.

I. So, today we'll look at three things to _____ as you trust God to meet your needs.

A. Include _____ in God's promises.

1. As in the story of the 5,000, it is stated again that Jesus has _____ on those following him.

2. Also, we see that Jesus is aware of people's _____ without having to be told.

B. Look for a _____ solution first.

1. What would have been wrong in this situation would be for them to expect Jesus to pull a rabbit out of the hat every time they experienced some kind of _____.

C. You have to give Him _____ of what you have.

1. The greatest barrier to experiencing God's provision in your life is approaching God with a "here's _____ of me" attitude.

II. A _____ for A Sign

A. Consider, first, who it was that made this demand—the _____ and the _____.

B. Jesus _____ the them.

III. Be on Your _____.

A. Here Jesus makes a statement that _____ the disciples.

B. But there's a greater principle Jesus is teaching in this passage. It's the principle of _____.

1. That's why Jesus compared teaching to yeast — because a little teaching can affect a lot of _____.

IV. I want to give you three quick _____ to keep in mind.

A. Choose your _____ carefully.

1. There are two _____ to go by.

a.) Biblical _____.

b.) _____.

B. Learn to listen with a _____.

C. Ultimately, what you believe is your _____.