Prediction of Peter's Denial/Gethsemane
Matthew 26:31-46

We all have things we thought we'd never succumb to that we suddenly find ourselves _____ with.

Testing reveals our _____ and our _____, so we know what we need to _____ on.

When we face _____, we have to face the _____.

We're going to fall spiritually at times. The question is, are we willing to honestly _____ what we did and _____ and _____ from it, or do we _____?

The idea that they'd fall away just seemed _____ to them—especially Peter.

Godly sorrow is where you're sorry that you've done it because it's _____ and it's _____, and it leads to _____ & a change of _____ and _____. Worldly sorrow is where you're sorry about the _____ of your sin.

The rooster crowing shows that Jesus' trial was _____ because it happened at _____.

Peter wasn't the only one who claimed he would never betray Jesus, just the _____ & the most _____.

God has promised to always be _____ us—regardless of what happens.

Even Jesus had to endure a _____ answer from God.

Our approach to prayer should be, "Lord, this is what I want; but what I want _____ is what You want."
